AMY C. WANINGER TO PRESENT AT DIVERSITY 4.0 CONFERENCE

Waninger to speak on diversity in professional networking

National Harbor, MD, February 26, 2018– The Society for Diversity has invited Amy C. Waninger to present at their 2018 annual conference, Diversity 4.0. This year's conference theme is: "Diversity 4.0: A Creative Experience in Transformative Leadership" Conference attendees will explore next-generation practices that advance traditional equity, diversity and inclusion work. Waninger's session will help participants expand their professional networks with a focus on diversity and inclusion.

In an information economy, what you know is much less important to your career than who you know. Professionals of all stripes can do more to seek out diverse perspectives and to ensure that qualified people from all backgrounds have the right connections to succeed. I look forward to helping Diversity and Inclusion professionals find opportunities for outreach to other disciplines!
