AMY C. WANINGER TO PRESENT KEYNOTE ADDRESS AT ANTSHE CONFERENCE 2018

Waninger to speak on going above and beyond your own expectations

Charlotte, NC, March 1, 2018– The Association for Non-Traditional Students in Higher Education (ANTSHE) has invited Amy C. Waninger to deliver a keynote address at their 2018 annual conference. ANTSHE Conference 2018 is the premiere conference focusing on adult learners in higher education and the faculty, administrators, advisors, and innovative leaders who provide guidance, support and advocate for them. This year's conference theme is: "The Fight for Academic Equity: Creating Social Cohesiveness Between the Adult Learner and College." The conference offers three days of engaging content, networking, and valuable, high quality education. In addition to her keynote address, Waninger will present an educational session about intentional networking.

Many people are afraid to dream too big, too early. The purpose of address is to help the audience push beyond their fear of success world they may not currently imagine.
