AMY C. WANINGER TO SPEAK AT GLOBAL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

Waninger to speak on practical steps to reduce bias in hiring

Twickenham, UK, March 1, 2018– Declic International has invited Amy C. Waninger to participate in its 2018 Inclusive Leadership Global Conference. This pioneering free online event provides business leaders, diversity practitioners and human resources professionals with practical insights to create inclusive cultures, lead successfully diverse teams and increase team performance. Waninger’s session will focus on practical steps leaders can take to reduce bias in hiring.

We all make decisions based on biases – some of them we recognize, others we do not. Hiring managers are no exception. By identifying the personal biases we bring into the candidate selection process, we can make more rational decisions. I am excited to help leaders around the world identify ways to make their hiring practices more inclusive!
