AMY C. WANINGER TO PRESENT AT ISAE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Waninger to present two sessions at annual meeting of association professionals

Noblesville, IN, March 27, 2018– The Indiana Society of Association Executives (ISAE) has invited Amy C. Waninger to present two educational sessions at ISAE’s 2018 Annual Conference. The conference will be held July 16-17, 2018 in Noblesville, Indiana. Registration for the conference opens soon on the www.isae.org website. Organizers expect about 200 association professionals and industry partners to attend the event. Waninger’s two-hour “deep dive” workshop, Network Beyond Bias, will help participants expand their professional networks with a focus on diversity and inclusion. Her one-hour breakout session, Serving Up Feedback, provides a four-step model for delivering positive and constructive feedback, as well as strategies for responding to feedback from others.

*I am excited share important leadership skills so close to home!
Having presented Networking Beyond Bias at CalSAE’s conference in March, I saw the impact these concepts can have among association professionals. Strong leadership skills are important for association professionals, because they can affect entire industries!
